Action Taken Report on Stakeholders Feedback for the Academic Year 2014-15

Action taken report on stakeholders' feedback for the academic year 2014-15 analysed by IQAC, in its meeting held on 9th April and subsequent discussion held on 24th September 2015 by Governing Body is as follows:

Sl. No.	IQAC Recommendations based on summarized feedback	Action Taken
1	Faculty should be informed individually about the feedback received on teaching and learning.	Governing body has discussed the feedback report and advised the principal to meet the faculty individually and advise them to improve their performance in classroom activities and advised to conduct remedial class for slow learners for better results.
2	Respective departments should be called for the meeting to discuss about the areas for improvement based on feedback report.	Based on GB advise departmental meetings were called to discuss the feedback analysis and stakeholders' responses It is also advised that HOD'S must personally communicate with those students who are not regular in order to understand their concerns and review the progress proctor wise.
3	Improve the teaching techniques through adopting innovative methods and ICT tools.	As per the decision of Academic council all the faculty members were advised to share teaching materials in PPT or pdf apart from chalk & talk classroom teaching methods. Extensive use of LCD, OHP and PPTs need to be encouraged.
4	Introduction of value add courses as supplement for students learning	Departments were asked to find the gaps and were instructed to introduce various Value add / Certificate courses & enrichment Programs to supplement for students learning. Accordingly, the college has offered 3 value add programs in different streams.
